The Southern California Regional Occupational Center (SoCal ROC) served as the model for the State of California when Regional Occupational Centers were founded in 1967. At that time, the centers were intended to provide training for trades in traditional occupational settings. With the 21st Century came new challenges and higher expectations for the work force. Today, the wage earner has to be more educated, more technically dependent, and more self-reliant than was his/her counterpart 48 years ago. Yet, the Southern California Regional Occupational Center has remained the model for the State through the development of innovative programs, a major emphasis upon technology, and an awareness that Career Technical Education (CTE) is for everyone, from the individual seeking to enter the job market with upgraded skills, to the college-prep student desiring greater academic challenge and the opportunity to apply knowledge learned.

SoCal ROC offers many CTE courses that are part of a sequential pathway in five career sectors:

- School of Art and Design
- School of Engineering and Design
- School of Finance and Business
- School of Health Sciences
- School of Public and Consumer Services

What is a Career Pathway? A career pathway is a coherent sequence of rigorous academic and technical courses that allows students to apply academics and develop technical skills in a curriculum area. Career pathways prepare students for successful completion of state academic and technical standards and more advanced postsecondary course work related to the career in which they are interested.

The California Career Technical Education framework recognizes fifteen sectors. SoCal ROC has identified five schools that encompass the pathways and courses.

SoCal ROC is part of the California public school system that provides Career Technical Education opportunities for high school and adult students. SoCal ROC offers 107 hands-on Career Technical Education courses within its 19 career pathways. Twenty-five courses are UC/CSU approved. Externship opportunities are available for some of the courses. All instructors possess a valid California Teaching Credential in Designated Subjects.

Build your future at SoCal ROC. What are your personal interests? Use this guide to explore Career Pathway opportunities that match your interests.
